

Jan Winter, RN, MHA, BSN, SHRM-CP

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Jan Winter is the former CEO and co-owner of two hospitals serving Northeast Oklahoma: Bristow Medical Center in Bristow and the Center for Orthopaedic Reconstruction and Excellence (CORE) in Jenks. She is also the former CEO and co-owner of Summit Medical Center in Casper, Wyoming.

Jan has worked extensively in the healthcare field as a direct patient care provider and in various hospital administrative capacities for more than 30 years. Having started as a registered nurse in the emergency department, Jan climbed the administrative ranks to become one of only a handful of female hospital CEOs in Oklahoma.

EDUCATION

- Master of Science in Health Care Administration, University of Texas at Arlington
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing, West Texas A&M University
- Associate Degree in Nursing, Amarillo College

PERSONAL LIFE

Jan is married to Tracy since December 2022. She has three children, Brett (22), Alex (19), and Avery (10). Brett attends is a Senior at OSU and will graduate in May 2024 with a degree in mechanical and aerospace engineering. Alex is a sophomore at OSU and majors in nutritional sciences. He plans to be a dietician. Avery loves to dance and play softball. In her spare time, Jan enjoys attending sporting events, music concerts, reading, traveling, visiting with friends and enjoying outdoor activities such as golf and snow skiing.